Announcement from the Governor’s Office of Planning and Research (OPR) web site:

The Governor’s Office of Planning and Research (OPR) and the Division of the State Architect (DSA) are pleased to solicit your input on the public review draft of “Plug-In Electric Vehicles: Universal Charging Access Guidelines and Best Practices.” These draft guidelines have been developed by DSA to assist OPR with physical accessibility standards and design guidelines for the installation of plug-in electric vehicle charging stations throughout California. The voluntary guidelines address accessible plug-in electric vehicle charging stations on both public and private sites and within public rights of way.

The public review for the Guidelines will begin on Tuesday, April 9 and end on Friday, June 7, 2013. Please email your comments and any questions to ZEVfeedback@opr.ca.gov. Please also email ZEVfeedback for inquiries about viewing the document in alternate formats.
