

Wildfire Resiliency Toolkit Respond Discussion Questions

Your Responses to the questions below will inform the discussion and development of a playbook to help local governments prepare, respond and recover to wildfire and other emergencies. Please return this form to your facilitator or email responses to kbrowne@ca-ilg.org.

Please provide your responses to each question below. The Facilitator and your team will discuss questions 1-3 and more as time allows.

1. What type of information would be useful to you in a wildfire resilience toolkit?

2. What are the key activities/ resources/tools needed to “prepare, respond, recover” from a wildfire disaster?
 - a. Clearly describe new material that needs to be created from this toolkit and who would be best to create these essential resources?
 - b. Identify existing material available for this playbook and which agency owns or maintains it.
 - i. New Material

 - ii. Existing material

3. What new content needs to be generated? What are the biggest gaps in existing resources?

4. How do we leverage the ICARP TAC and its clearinghouse to develop the toolkit?

5. How do we ensure this toolkit is helpful?

Reflection on the Wildfire Resiliency Toolkit Discussion

1. My name and email is (optional):
2. One way I'll personally contribute to keeping the momentum going is...
3. The most helpful part of the discussion today was...
4. I still feel confused or concerned about....
5. Another stakeholder/funder that should be involved is...
6. One thing that ILG should consider would be...